He is Risen – Believe It. Pastor Linda Titzell, Ext. 5580

Chuck Colson, known for his involvement in the Watergate cover-up, had a very public and highly scrutinized conversion to Christ, one that involved political scandal and federal prison. It led to a lifetime of ministry, especially through Prison Fellowship. He often shared that his experience in a political scandal, in the end, convinced him of the resurrection: “As Paul writes in 1 Corinthians, the historical fact of Christ’s resurrection is the only basis of our hope. Without the resurrection, our faith is futile. This is why critics of Christianity often try to explain away the empty tomb. They claim that the disciples lied—that they stole Jesus’ body themselves and conspired together to pretend He had risen. The apostles then managed somehow to recruit more than 500 other people to lie for them as well, to say they saw Jesus after He rose from the dead. But just how plausible is this theory?” Chuck Colson knew a lot about Watergate. He said, “There were no more than a dozen of us political zealots. With enormous political power and prestige, we could be expected to maintain a cover-up to save the president.” But they could not.

Back to the question of the historicity of Christ’s resurrection. Can anyone believe that for fifty years Jesus’ disciples were willing to be ostracized, beaten, persecuted, and all but one of them suffer a martyr’s death—without ever renouncing their conviction that they had seen Jesus bodily resurrected? Does anyone really think the disciples could have maintained a lie all that time under that kind of pressure? No, someone would have cracked. Why didn’t they crack? Because they had come face to face with the living God. They could not deny what they had seen. The fact is that people will give their lives for what they believe is true, but they will never give their lives for what they know is a lie. The Watergate cover-up proves that 12 powerful men in modern America could not keep a lie—and that 12 powerless men 2,000 years ago could not have been telling anything but the truth.

Save Money on Your Car Wash!

Betsy Liou, 717-357-1874
The Friends of CKV

Have we got a deal for you! We can help you keep your car sparkling all year long with our newest ongoing fundraiser! The Friends of Cross Keys Village is selling car wash coupons. Each coupon costs you $10 but will get you a $30 car wash at any Tidal Wave Auto Spa and is good until April of 2026. There are two locations right here in Hanover. You can keep the coupons for yourself or give them as gifts. They are good all over the US. Once you try it, we know you will want to come back and purchase more coupons.

You can purchase your coupons by contacting Betsy Liou at the above number or emailing her at bjliou1@gmail.com. Flyers will be available soon in Harmony Ridge, which will have order forms attached. Checks only, please, made out to “The Friends of CKV.” Remember that all funds raised go towards helping residents and team members of Cross Keys Village. Thank you for your continued support of our projects.

Sunday Movie Matinee:

"Field of Dreams"

Charlie Herr, Ext. 5725

Villager Movie Group

2:00 - 3:45 pm

No sign-up necessary

Theater

"Field of Dreams" is a sports fantasy drama film written and directed by Phil Alden Robinson, based on Canadian novelist W. P. Kinsella's 1982 novel "Shoeless Joe." The film stars Kevin Costner as a farmer who builds a baseball field in his cornfield that attracts the ghosts of baseball legends, including Shoeless Joe Jackson (Ray Liotta) and the Chicago Black Sox. Amy Madigan, James Earl Jones, and Burt Lancaster (in his final film role) also star.

The Black Sox Scandal was a game-fixing scandal in which eight members of the Chicago White Sox were accused of intentionally losing the 1919 World Series against the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for payment from a gambling syndicate.

The movie was nominated for three Academy Awards: Best Picture, Best Original Score, and Best Adapted Screenplay.

Bob Wilson's Jazz History has been focusing on the big bands, but there were a great many that have not been featured up to now. These bands, less remembered than Benny Goodman or Glenn Miller, played classic swing, cool jazz, Dixieland, progressive jazz, the blues, and just plain fun. They include some nearly forgotten names—Charlie Barnet, Bob Crosby and his Bobcats, Ray Anthony, Claude Thornhill, Thad Jones—Mel Lewis, Cab Calloway, Boyd Raeburn, Jack Teagarden, Buddy Rich, and Spike Jones. Please join us as we sample this potpourri of big bands.

In 1995, documents derived from breaking World War II Soviet KGB encoded messages were declassified by the NSA and FBI. These documents and several other sources reveal that from the 1930s through World War II, the US government was widely penetrated by perhaps as many as 1000 Soviet spies. Many of these spies held high positions in various government departments and were able to influence US policies to the Soviet Union's benefit. Had President Roosevelt died in his third term instead of a mere 82 days into his fourth term, Vice President Henry Wallace would have appointed Soviet agents to be his Secretary of State and Treasury Secretary. Who some of these agents were and their influence on US policy, to the significant advantage of the Soviet Union both in WWII and the Cold War, will be revealed.

"Mamie Remembers Gettysburg" is a recollection of her first meeting with Ike, the trials and tribulations of marriage, war, politics, the presidency, and their life together in Gettysburg. During their 52 years of marriage, Mamie Doud Eisenhower was the primary person who provided the support for the success of Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mamie was so popular as a First Lady; she received over six thousand letters a week. After seeing this portrayal, you'll become one of those fans.

"Mamie Remembers Gettysburg" is performed by Ruthmary McIlhenny, who is a student of Mamie Eisenhower. Ruthmary has been a volunteer at the Eisenhower Historical Site since 1991 and is vice president of the Dwight David Eisenhower Society.

Deadline: Tuesday, May 20

Based on the hit 1980 film, Dolly Parton herself provides the music and lyrics for this outrageous workplace revenge comedy set in the Rolodex era. It centers on the downtrodden working lives of three women. Taking place in the late 1970s, this hilarious story of friendship and revenge is outrageous, thought-provoking, and even a little romantic. Pushed to the boiling point, three female coworkers concoct a plan to get even with their boss. These unlikely friends take control of their office and learn there is nothing they can't do, even in a man's world.

Dinner will follow the show at the Dobbin House Tavern in Gettysburg. The price includes dinner buffet, non-alcoholic beverage, tax, gratuity, and the show.
