Campus Safety Reminder: We All Share Responsibility

Jay Rohrbach, Ext. 5452
Chief Operating Officer

One of the most common topics raised during our recent Coffee & Conversation session was traffic safety across campus. Residents expressed concerns regarding speeding, rolling stops, distracted driving, and drivers failing to yield at crosswalks. Our community is very active, where residents, visitors, volunteers, and team members walk, bike, drive golf carts, and travel throughout campus every day.

Please help keep our community safe by:

- Observing our 15 MPH speed limit throughout the entire campus.
- Coming to a complete stop at stop signs.
- Yielding to pedestrians in crosswalks.
- Avoiding the use of cell phones and other distractions while driving.
- Exercising extra caution near building entrances, intersections, and walking paths.
- Remaining alert for golf carts, maintenance vehicles, and emergency vehicles.
- Report specific safety concerns immediately so they can be properly investigated.

We are currently reviewing additional safety measures, including signage, traffic flow concerns, and educational opportunities.

Keep in mind, a moment of impatience behind the wheel can have serious consequences. Thank you for helping us maintain a safe and welcoming environment for all who live, work, volunteer, and visit Cross Keys Village.

Harmony Ridge Showcases

Salt & Pepper Collection By Linda Smith

I am sharing this salt and pepper shaker collection, which belonged to Betty (Kraft) Ness, my father's wife. Betty started collecting it in 1946. They are too cute and unique to keep boxed up so I'm hoping to sell them so they can bring joy to someone else.

Decanters & Steins By P. Ann Brown

The decanters and steins were given as gifts and collected by my husband, Harry Brown. The vehicles were collected by my brother-in-law, Shirley Milhimes.

Hope you enjoy the displays!

Quilt Showcase

The Very Hungry Caterpillar By Belle Sheedy

This quilt was made for my grandson Dru. He liked the children's book titled The Very Hungry Caterpillar. The book is about growth, transformation, and journey from home to the unknown with a positive message about change.

Dru is getting ready to move to the next stage of his life as he heads to James Madison University.

He will spread his wings and fly.

All aboard for a journey through Gettysburg's historic 3rd Ward, a vibrant Black community that has long been "hidden in plain sight." Our tour guide will use stories, photographs, and lived history to illuminate the people, places, and traditions that shaped this remarkable neighborhood.

One of our stops will be the budding Hopkins House Museum — built in the 1840s and recognized as the last standing Black built and Black owned home in Gettysburg. The museum will serve as a cornerstone for preserving and sharing the community's legacy.

We will also explore the Lincoln Cemetery, how it came to be, and how it became a sacred anchor for Gettysburg's Black residents. Each leg of our journey will trace the formation of the Black community, its families, its organizations, and its deep pride in the town they called home. Join us for this engaging story of resilience, heritage, and belonging — a history that shaped Gettysburg and continues to inspire future generations.

CKV Sojourners

Depart 12:45 pm

Cost: $70, payable to LEC

Warning: Side effects may include uncontrollable laughter, sore ribs, and a sudden urge to clean your apartment.

Totem Pole Playhouse is throwing open the doors to the most gloriously chaotic living situation in comedy history — Oscar and Felix: A New Look at The Odd Couple.

Picture this: Oscar Madison, lovably slobby sportswriter extraordinaire, agrees to let his newly single pal Felix Ungar crash at his place. Sounds simple enough, right? Wrong. Felix irons his socks. Oscar can't find his socks. And absolutely nothing will ever be the same.

What explodes from there is a tornado of razor-sharp zingers, perfectly timed chaos, and the kind of gut-busting comedy that has audiences howling for decades. Neil Simon's genius is on full display — and this fresh, spirited production cranks it up to eleven.

Unforgettable characters. Brilliant one-liners. Comedy so good it should probably be illegal.

Oscar and Felix: A New Look at The Odd Couple is the kind of night out that reminds you why live theater is pure magic — and why you should never, ever share an apartment with your best friend.

Don't say we didn't warn you.

Dinner will follow the show at Dobbin House. The price includes a buffet, non-alcoholic beverages, tax, gratuity, and the show.
