Volunteer Opportunities Cindy Boyer, Ext. 5227 Volunteer Services

Volunteer Services is looking for the following:

A Volunteer for the CKV Sojourners who enjoys writing and would be willing to help our trip leaders prepare articles for the Village Voice.

The volunteer would work with trip leaders to take the information they provide about an upcoming trip or activity and turn it into a clear, inviting Village Voice article. This would be especially helpful for trip leaders who are comfortable planning and leading a trip but may not be comfortable writing the announcement. The volunteer would not be responsible for planning the trips or gathering all the details—just helping turn the information provided by the trip leader into an article ready for submission.

You must be a registered Volunteer to fill these needs. Please reach out to Volunteer services to become a registered Volunteer.

Movie Shenandoah

Dave Peters, Ext. 5539

With the integrity and depth of an epic, Shenandoah tells the dramatic story of a man caught in a dilemma. James Stewart stars as a Virginia farmer during the Civil War. He refuses to support the Confederacy because he is opposed to slavery, yet he will not support the Union because he is deeply opposed to war. When his son is taken prisoner, Stewart goes to search for the boy. Seeing firsthand the horrors of war, he is at last forced to take his stand. The movie has a large cast including George Kennedy, Doug McClure, Glenn Corbett, Patrick Wayne, and Katharine Ross in her film debut.

The 1965 unrated movie will be shown with close captioning
