Discovery Classes and Life Enrichment Events Holly Fetting, Ext. 5544 Director of Life Enrichment

In this issue of the Village Voice, the last of April, you would typically find our Discovery listing for the next month. In an effort to provide details on our many classes and events in the most efficient way possible, we are eliminating that massive monthly collection of classes. Moving forward, Discovery classes and any other Life Enrichment events will simply be listed under the Events section of the Village Voice. In addition to sharing the information in a more timely and consistent way, we believe it will be easier to read and digest and better for the management of your schedules. This will also serve to help us improve our approaches to planning and promotion within the Life Enrichment Team.

As with any other classes, events, or trips, registrations will open in Uniguest and the Harmony Ridge Lobby at 8:00 am on the Monday after publication in the Village Voice, unless stated otherwise.

We hope this change is received as it's intended, and Holly welcomes your feedback on this or anything else related to Life Enrichment at Cross Keys Village.

LET YOUR HANDS DO THE PRAYING

Pastor Linda Titzell, Ext. 5580

Remember the yellow pages that listed business numbers and addresses; “Let your fingers do the walking?” I recently felt or heard the Spirit of God invite me to let my hands do the praying, so I did.

- 1) Palms Open - I began by extending my arms, opening my hands and turning my palms up as a gesture of openness and receptivity to the “still small voice” of God. It was a physical and spiritual relief. I did not pray anything in particular but simply let my open hands do the “talking.”
- 2) Palms Flat - Next, I turned my palms over and held them flat while envisioning my worries and fears, and dropping them all into God’s hands. I found that I breathed easier and felt my muscles relax and my pulse slow.
- 3) Hands Folded - After a while, I pressed my hands together, like the famous “Praying Hands” painting. Again, I let my hands do the praying. I asked the Holy Spirit, on the basis of Romans 8:26, to intercede for me—to translate my praying hands into all the petitions I could or should be praying.
- 4) Hands Lifted - Finally, I lifted my hands in the air, like that Bible verse about “lifting holy hands.” Holy or not, the gesture was, for me, one of gratitude and praise.

Letting your hands do the praying can be a helpful practice in many places and circumstances. On an airplane, perhaps, or on a train, in stand-still traffic, in a long line at the bank. Or anywhere where you have run out of words or find it difficult to focus. In such situations, a simple gesture or two can be a good or better prayer than any your lips can express.

Concert Series:
Yasmin Levy
Al Karasa, Ext. 5194

Yasmin Levy is perhaps the most exotic entertainer in this series. She is an Israeli singer and songwriter of Judeo-Spanish Sephardic music with roots in the Jewish communities of 15th-century Spain and Portugal, now also found in Greece and Turkey. Her songs in Turkish, Hebrew, and Spanish are about life and death, love and passion, joy and pain, and she sings them in an uncommonly emotive style. In her many concerts and recordings, Levy uses the best musicians from Armenia, Greece, Paraguay, Turkey, Israel, and Spain. She earned the Anna Lindh Award for promoting cross-cultural music dialogue across three continents.

Her study of piano, composition, and the Sephardic music genre began at age six and continued uninterrupted to age nineteen, when her professional career began. The selections compiled for this presentation range from small audience club dates to concerts with a full symphony orchestra and showcase a wide variety of her work in Romania, Turkey, Spain, Greece, and her native Israel.

Reminders

FEEDING OF WILDLIFE

Grounds Department, Ext. 5375

Villagers may hang bird houses and feed birds using feeders, suet blocks and bags. Food placed on the ground to attract ground feeders is discouraged, because it also attracts unwanted wildlife. Houses and feeders should be attached to a shepherd's crook inserted into the ground or hung from tree limbs. Shepherd's crooks must be installed inside mulch beds to avoid added trimming and maintenance. When hanging houses and feeders from limbs, check the hanger periodically, especially in the spring to make sure the tree does not grow around the hanger. This can damage the tree and cause the branch to die.

Feeding wildlife such as squirrels, chipmunks, and ducks is strongly discouraged. The same food also attracts raccoons, groundhogs, skunks, and foxes. These animals have plenty of natural food sources. Feeding them encourages close contact with humans and creates nuisance situations that can potentially turn dangerous.

Feeding cats is also prohibited. Stray and feral cats migrate from surrounding properties. Placing food outside encourages these cats to stay in the community, creating a nuisance.

Please notify the Grounds department if you notice any strange wildlife activity or digging around the property.
