Scam Alert: Virtual Kidnapping

Brian Lawrence, Ext. 5428

Director of Village Housing

What Is Virtual Kidnapping?

Virtual kidnapping is an extortion scam in which criminals falsely claim they have kidnapped a loved one and demand ransom money. No one is actually abducted. Scammers often use personal information, AI-generated voice cloning, or spoofed phone numbers to make the threat seem real and pressure victims into acting quickly.

How It Works

Scammers begin by collecting personal information from social media, public websites, or data breaches. They often target a family member, such as a child, and create a convincing story designed to trigger fear and urgency.

What To Do

If you receive a ransom call, stay calm and avoid sharing personal information. If possible, hang up immediately. If you continue the conversation, ask to speak directly with your loved one and request information that only they would know. Use another phone, text message, or social media platform to contact them independently and verify their safety. Never send money before confirming the situation and report the incident to local law enforcement.

How To Protect Yourself

Reducing the amount of personal information available online can help prevent these scams. Keep social media accounts private, avoid sharing travel plans, addresses, phone numbers, or detailed family information, and be cautious of phishing attempts that seek to steal personal data.

Families can also establish emergency verification questions or code words and use trusted location-sharing services when appropriate. If you receive a suspicious call, keep calm, verify the information independently, and contact the police as soon as possible. The key to avoiding virtual kidnapping scams is not letting fear and urgency override careful verification.

Village Safety Training Notice

Matt Muller, Ext. 5585
Director of Campus Safety

On Wednesday, October 21, between 11:00 am and 2:00 pm, you may notice increased activity throughout the Village as team members participate in safety training conducted by Delta Development Group.

Please do not be alarmed. This training is another important step in strengthening our preparedness and ensuring our team is ready to respond effectively when needed.

Stay tuned for additional updates and educational opportunities for our Villagers and residents as we continue to build awareness and preparedness throughout the community.

Gallery East Exhibit

Kathy Tomlinson, Ext. 5930

We have the "GALLERY GROUP" of YAA back to share their work with us here at CKV! They have filled our art wall with work from eight (8) of their member artists. Most have displayed in the past; some are exhibiting here for the first time. There is a lovely variety of subjects and mediums represented in this show.

The group has taken into consideration that many Villagers have limited wall space in our homes, so they have brought a number of smaller pieces this year. ALL ARE FOR SALE! If you are interested in purchasing a piece, please contact Villager Kathy Tomlinson. Since this group does collect tax, Kathy will verify and confirm the total cost of the piece in which you are interested. All checks should be made out to YAA-not the artist.

Tickets Available - Beautiful: The Carol King Musical

Dixie Schaefer, 717-624-5693

There's still time to join the group trip to Beautiful: The Carole King Musical at Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre on Wednesday, October 28. Two tickets remain and will be sold first come, first served. The bus departs from the Harmony Ridge Lobby at 10:30 am. Interested? Contact Dixie Schaefer at 717-624-5693.

Dog Park Recommendation

Scott Michael, Ext. 4695

Building & Landscape Committee

As many of you are aware, the Village Council voted at its September meeting to conduct a second review of the dog park recommendation.

We view this decision as an opportunity to ensure that the interests and perspectives of our community are more fully represented throughout the review process. To that end, we are developing a plan that will provide all Villagers with an opportunity to share feedback while also increasing transparency regarding how recommendations are evaluated and developed.

Once this plan has been finalized, we will communicate the details with the Village & Village Council, which will include information on how feedback can be submitted for consideration. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Mason Jars Needed

Nikki Bull, Ext. 5294

Life Enrichment Specialist

Do you have extra glass mason jars collecting dust in your cupboards? We can put them to good use!

We are currently seeking donations of clean glass mason jars for an upcoming craft project. Jars of any size are welcome. Please note that lids are not needed, and donated jars will not be returned. If you would like to contribute, please bring your jars to Nikki by November 1.

Thank you for helping make this creative project possible! Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Custom Picture Framing

Jim Cramer, 717-968-6769

CKV Woodshop

The CKV woodshop has a dedicated picture framing area. Bill Gibbs has had oversight of this area of the woodshop for over 14 years and has decided to step aside, asking me to assume his responsibilities, and will serve as my helper.

I operated a custom framing "hobby" business in New Oxford for about 16 years, from 1992 to 2005.

The CKV frame shop has all the tools and supplies to attack anything you may have interest in framing or repairing.

So, if you have a favorite piece that needs fixing or framed, give me a call or text at 717-968-6769. Email is jcramer6769@gmail.com. I'll be glad to meet you and discuss what you need and the approximate cost to you.

Looking to score his big break as a newspaper reporter and impress the beautiful Alma Parker (Joan Staley), milquetoast typesetter Luther Heggs (Don Knotts) pitches a story about his small town's notorious haunted house.

When his editor (Dick Sargent) insists that Luther spend a night alone in the spooky mansion, where a grisly murder-suicide had taken place decades earlier, the timid reporter learns that the house contains a supernatural resident who doesn't like visitors.

Great fun, lots of excitement and a surprise ending. The movie is rated PG and has subtitles.

Thanks to all who have joined the parades, cheered us on, and kept us safe this year. You are appreciated!

In addition to golf carts, we also welcome bicycles, classic cars, and scooters. All are welcome to join us.

GriefShare: Surviving the Holidays One-Day Class

Nikki Bull, Ext. 5294

Life Enrichment Specialist

Nicarry Meetinghouse

1:00 pm

The holiday season can be a particularly hard time when we are grieving the loss of someone we love. Traditions, family gatherings, and familiar memories can bring gratitude, loneliness, and sorrow. If you are facing the holidays while grieving, please know that you do not have to walk through this season alone.

We warmly invite you to join us for GriefShare: Surviving the Holidays.

We will share a time of connection, watch a helpful video, participate in group discussion, and close with a time of prayer.

Whether your loss is recent or you have been grieving for some time, you are welcome. There is no expectation to share more than you feel comfortable, and our hope is to offer encouragement, understanding, and a compassionate space as you anticipate the holiday season.

"The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit (Ps. 34:18)."

We hope to see you! No RSVP needed. Just bring a friend and come.
